

310 ml

USD

Silicone sealant

USD products are silicone sealants that are mounting components from the screed-covered underfloor duct product range. These sealants are used to tightly close gaps between individual components. For example, they can be used to meticulously grout the gaps between prefabricated floors and cartridge units. One cartridge contains 310 ml of sealant.

Artikel	Typ	W
USD54-S	sealing bag	0.310 kg

